

Helpline Services. Using telephone counseling, problem solving and crisis intervention skills, ContactLifeline volunteers provided 24-hour availability to persons who need help or are in crisis. Our purpose is to keep people alive & safe, help them work through crises, and connect them with relevant resources in the community.

- Crisis Helpline Services responded to 24,123 calls for help. The greatest number of calls concerned personal stress and coping with personal issues, suicide, mental health issues, interpersonal relationship conflicts, physical health including addictions to alcohol and drugs, abuse and relationship violence.
- Rape Crisis Services provided 1,148 contacts including telephone counseling, hospital, police and court accompaniments (91) and offered 43 sexual assault victim's support groups. Over 116 prevention workshops were offered to 2,188 Delawareans.
- Counseling Support Services provided 48 prevention workshops to 775 adolescents and 950 counseling sessions to 204 victims of sexual assault.
- Reassurance Program provided 3,285 daily telephone reassurance calls and caring human interaction to the lonely and disenfranchised elderly and homebound.

Volunteer Training Program. As a volunteer organization ContactLifeline recruits, trains, supervises and develops the potential of volunteer helpline listeners/counselors & rape crisis advocates.

- 96 volunteers participated in the Crisis Helpline Services, Rape Crisis Services & Reassurance Program.
- 46,143 volunteer hours donated to the community valued at $916,861.

Financial Support & Program Expenses (includes depreciation of $ 20,508 and administrative costs of 8.5%)

